

It has rained off and on for the last three days. With the wind right from the East, which Job tells us in fifteen-two isn't very good food, to say the least. The weather predictions yesterday were: Snow Thursday, much colder at night, followed by stationary temperature Friday.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mr. J. S. BLEDSON went to Lexington Tuesday.
Mr. J. WARREN HOCKER is laid up with sciatica.
"Jim Crow" DILLON, of Lancaster, was here Tuesday.
Miss LIZZIE HELM is visiting relatives at Hodgenville.
Mr. W. D. WEAVER, of the Carter Dry Goods Co., was here to see our merchants Tuesday.
Mr. M. B. McMULLEN, of Rockcastle, was here this week.
Mr. and Mrs. T. F. SPINK are visiting his sister in Louisville.
Miss NANNIE GIVENS has returned from a visit to Mrs. H. G. Cook at Jellico.
Mr. J. S. REINHART, of St. Louis, is visiting his son, Mr. E. L. Reinhart.
Miss SUE WILLIE HALE is visiting Miss Glenn Bibb in the McKinney section.
Messrs. G. A. PERWITT and A. P. Young, of Casey, were here Wednesday.
Mr. G. R. WILKINSON and Mrs. J. W. Moore, of Casey, visited friends here this week.
Miss JENNIE BURNSIDE, of Garrard, has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. M. C. Burnside.
Misses SARAH CURTIS and Lou Hocker, of Hustonville, visited relatives here Wednesday.
Tom YRAGER, the popular young trainer, will soon be ready for business over the Cecilian track - Advocate.
Mr. FRANK DECKERT, of the Louisville Commercial, is here working up a big subscription list for the "old reliable."
Mr. J. S. OWLEY, Jr., returned from Franklin yesterday. His mother-in-law, Mrs. James M. McElwain, though somewhat improved, is still very ill.
GEORGE BURTON, Esq., of Pittsburg, came down Tuesday to see his father, Mr. William Burton, who continues very ill with inflammation of the stomach.
Mr. D. E. G. ROSE, representing the Louisville Post, was here Wednesday in the interest of that excellent daily and assisted Local Agent Barnes Wearon in materially increasing its circulation.
Mr. M. F. ELKIN, of Lincoln county, has been here the past week working up the order of Maccabees. About 50 names have been secured and a local Tent will be organized this week. - Winchester Democrat.
Mr. F. C. BROWN, of the Commercial Trust B. & L. Co., of Louisville, is here in its interest. He is exceedingly well posted on this line of business and backed by the good company that he is, should do well here.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Read Danks' big ad. this week.

"Mark down" sale at Danks' this week.
The best shoes for the least money at Shanks'.
The Ladies' Aid Society cleared $17.75 on their court day dinner.
Flower seeds, nasturtium and sweet peas in bulk W. B. McRoberts.
We will offer a lot of boys' odd coats and vests at one-half their real value. Hughes & Tate.
Six per cent. will be added to 1895 city taxes April 1st. Settle at once. Sam W. Menefee, Collector.
We handle a genuine Dongola shoe for $1.20; no sheep skin about it. Hughes & Tate.
Look in Danks, the Jeweler's, window and see the fine line of imitation cut glass. Prices way down.
We sell the celebrated Peerless hosiery and Misses' real Maco cotton ribbed hose, the best made. Hughes & Tate.
J. S. HOCKER bought of Mrs. Nannie Anderson, of Garrard, four shares of stock in the First National Bank of this place at par.
To THE PEN. - Deputy Sheriff Richard M. Newland took William Hale to Frankfort Wednesday to serve two years for the killing of George Pennington.
Boys, I've got 'em. That is I have hats of all kinds and at all prices. I have brown hats and black hats, tall hats and low hats, boy's hats and men's hats. In fact I have hats, hats, hats, hats W. H. Shanks.
The firm of Sine & Menefee is this day dissolved by mutual consent. A. C. Sine will continue the lumber business at the same yard. Accounts and notes due the firm will be placed in the hands of S. W. Menefee for collection. March 12, 1895.

New line of hats just received at Shanks'.
Get your clothing at Shanks' and save a few dollars.
THREE nice rooms over our stable, next to Dr. Cook for rent. M. S. & J. W. Baughman.
COL. W. H. DUDDERAR's other blood-bond has also died of distemper. This is pretty tough as the two cost $100.
GEORGE ELLIS has bought an interest in his father's store at Hustonville and the firm name is now John Ellis & Son.
Loss. - Certificate of stock in National Building and Loan Association at Louisville. Please return to J. W. Rout, Stanford.
A NEW line of clothing on hand at Shanks'. The latest styles and best quality for the least money. Come in and see for yourself.
The firm of Sine & Menefee has dissolved, Mr. Menefee retiring. Mr. Sine will continue the business at the old stand on Depot street.
Messrs. JOHN L. TANNER and Joseph K. Carson, both of McKinney, have rented A. Glass' store-room at Kingsville and will open a stock of general merchandise in a few days.
An important question, in which every member of the Odd Fellows lodge here is directly interested, is to be discussed at length at the next meeting and a full attendance is expected.
Hon. D. H. SHIELDS, the last of the lecturers, will be with us on the 20th. He is highly recommended and it is hoped that for once a large crowd will assemble at the opera house to hear a lecture.
The Andrews Opera Entertainment will draw a number of couples to Danville to-night and Saturday night. "The Pretty Persian" is on the bills for the first and "Martha" for the second performance.
ELEVEN NOW. - Jailer G. W. DeBorde is reaping the benefits of Laurel county's insecure jail. Sheriff F. P. Elliott delivered two more prisoners to him yesterday, Chris Jenkins and Milton Morgan, both charged with forgery.
We do not know what the girls around Stanford, who were accustomed to have Worth, the man milliner and dress maker, make their dresses will do now that the old man is dead. Death loves a shining mark and shot at him Monday.
The Cincinnati Southern runs a Jim Crow car to each of its local trains, but it can not make the crows go into them at Cincinnati, as it would be a violation of the inter-State commerce law. The negroes have caught on to it and they crowd into the ladies' car as big as dogs. It is rather a novel sight to see the races mixed in cars now, but we saw it at Nashville Wednesday.
DANVILLE is at last catching up in the march of progress. Water was turned on from Dix river Wednesday at 3 o'clock and the town turned out en masse to see the novel sight of water being forced three or four miles up hill from the river. The water-works is now about complete, after an expenditure of something like $70,000. Of course Dix river water is better than none, but half of the year it will be too muddy to drink and too hot the other half.
STANFORD has a board of U. S. medical examiners that is second to none in the State. The gentlemen who compose it are reputable physicians and their specialties make them peculiarly fitted for the work. Dr. J. F. Peyton, the president, is a surgeon of much note, Dr. Steele Bailey, secretary, is a general practitioner, whose services are much sought after, and Dr. J. G. Carpenter is known far and wide for his successful treatment of the eye, ear, throat and nose. Find three more competent, painstaking physicians than these in one board and they will give a thorough medical examination free of charge.
Miss ANNIE CARPENTER was adjudged of unsound mind by a jury Tuesday and on Wednesday Sheriff T. D. Newland, accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Davison, took her to the asylum at Lexington. Her hallucination began with a too full acceptance of the faith cure theory as taught by Bro. Barnes and when she embraced the sanctification doctrine as promulgated by Dr. Carradine and his followers the brittle hold that she had on sanity snapped, and for months she has been hopelessly bereft of reason. She staid with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dalton, who did everything they could for her and only resorted to the step they did, when everything else failed.

We keep a full line of J. B. and P. D. corsets. Hughes & Tate.
CALL in at Shanks' and get a four-in-hand, they are going like hot cakes.
The city council has sold all the iron lamp posts to Marshal Newland, who is peddling them out to Lancaster and other small towns.
A LANDSLIDE near Rost on the C. V. branch detained yesterday afternoon's Northbound passenger train and it was nearly 5 o'clock when it passed here.
I HAVE secured the agency for the Louisville and Cincinnati papers and will be found at Jesse D. Wearon's office. Papers will be delivered promptly to patrons. Barnes Wearon.
SAM DUDDERAR, son of Col. W. H. Dudderar, was fined for fast riding in Rowland, which, together with the cos., amounts to $17.50. The colonel avers that it is a piece of spite work and that he can be a hand and a half himself when it comes to that.
The Young Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will open an Exchange in Mr. Williams' room, opposite the St. Asaph Hotel, Saturday afternoon, March 23d. They will not solicit, but any contributions will be acceptable. They hope to keep this up several weeks and ask housekeepers to leave orders with them for Sunday dinners. Articles sold on commission.
RAN HIM. - R. C. Ford, candidate for State treasurer on the democratic ticket, president of the Manchester bank, and who married Miss Emma Garrard, who used to go to school here, had a row with Hon. John D. White at Manchester this week and drawing a pistol on him, ran the "crested jayhawker" all over the town. He says that "Mr. White has walked over" nearly every one in the county and attempted it on me, and I have proved to the people here that White is a coward.
MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.
-There are 10,000,000 married couples in France and 20 per cent. of them have no children.
-Charles Hocking is in jail at Newark, Ohio, for swindling over 50 women in various portions of the country, not a few of whom he married.
-H. C. Helpenstine and Miss Mary Reeves were married at Flemingsburg. The groom is 74 and had been married twice before, while the bride is two years his senior.
-A Hancock county man who has been married and divorced four times is about to shoulder the matrimonial yoke once more. He evidently does not believe that marriage is a failure.
-A. W. McMurray, of the Davis Sewing Machine Company, formerly located here, eloped to Covington with Miss Cora, daughter of Mrs. D. B. Willis, of Kirkville, where they were married.
-L. P. Coffman, who was granted a divorce by the circuit court last week was married at the court-house yesterday to Miss Alice McCowan. It was Judge Davison's first ceremony and was a very impressive one. The marriage was set for Wednesday, but Coffman's neighbors threatened a charivari and he postponed it a day.
-Mr. John Taylor, of Marion county, and Miss Lucy Givens, of Hustonville, were united in marriage in the Myers House parlor at 11:30 yesterday morning. Rev. W. W. Bruce, of Hustonville, officiating. Miss Jennie McKinney and Mr. Junius H. Hocker accompanied them here and stood with them during the ceremony. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. George Miller Givens, is a pretty brunette, charming in manners and altogether a most lovable lady, while the groom is a prominent farmer and a splendid gentleman. After dinner at the Myers House, at which a number of the contracting pair's friends took part, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor took the train for their home near Bradfordsville, where they will go to house-keeping at once. The INTERIOR JOURNAL joins their many friends in wishing them a safe and happy voyage of the journey just begun.
OF A LOCAL NATURE.
-Over 50 deaths are said to have resulted in Floyd county from a disease resembling cholera.
-Eighteen young men, of Madison county, took Horace Greeley's advice and left for the West to become farmers.
-Russell county got two new postmasters the other day: Edward Aaron at Denmark and D. M. Colper at Irvin's store.
-Dr. J. P. Huff, formerly editor of the Vanceburg Sun, contemplates establishing a newspaper at Monticello, Wayne county.
-A fire at Columbia destroyed nearly a block including the post-office. It originated in the office of Barbee Bros.' livery stable and it took heroic efforts to save the court-house.
-T. A. Hendricks, of Pulaski, took the world's record at a gymnastic tournament at Danville in a hop, skip and jump. The distance has heretofore been 29 feet 11 inches, but he added five inches to it.
-A dispatch from Middlesboro says: A quorum not being present at the council meeting, no successor to Mayor D. G. Colson could be elected. How long this deadlock will last no one can tell, as both sides seem determined. Meantime the city interests suffer.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.
-Electric cars are now operated in Jerusalem.
-The oldest Protestant church in the United States is St. Luke's, near Smithfield, Va. It was built in 1632.
-There 51,498 Methodist churches of all branches in the United States, having 4,589,284 communicants, and their church property is valued at $132,140,179.
-There was a fierce fight in a Polish Catholic church at Onana between the priest and his supporters on one side and an outside faction on the other. When the invaders opened fire, the priest, who was saying mass, exchanged the chalice for a revolver and began firing. Two men were wounded.
-The sanctification meeting at Barbourville is bearing the usual fruits. At an early hour Wednesday morning the good citizens of that town were rudely awakened from their slumbers by the continuous yells of a crazy woman, who was proclaiming as she walked the streets that she was walking in the city of the New Jerusalem.
-A new feature was added to the usual court day program at Shelbyville Monday. The Rev. Dewitt Forwood, pastor of the Baptist church, delivered a sermon from the steps of the Baptist church on the public square. He was assisted in his work by members of the church choir, who sang several hymns and were joined by the audience.
-The individual communion cup seems to be coming to stay. The Baltimore Methodist Conference refused to condemn it and many churches have adopted it. The Newark, N. J., Centenary Methodist church has gone them all one better in the matter. At a late administration of the sacrament there were 14 tables inside the altar rail with fifty goblets on each table and each goblet full of wine. There was also a multitude of bread plates and the feast was made real.
